

Gradivus Community Guidelines

Purpose Of These Guidelines

The Gradivus Community Is A Professional Forum Created to Enable Meaningful Engagement Around Capital Markets, Governance, And Execution-Oriented Market Practices. These Guidelines Establish the Principles and Expectations That Govern Participation Within The Community.

Professional Conduct and Behavior

All Members Are Expected to Engage In a Respectful, Courteous, And Professional Manner. Disrespectful Language, Personal Attacks, Harassment, Or Disruptive Behaviour Will Not Be Tolerated. Differences Of Opinion Are Welcome When Expressed Thoughtfully And In Good Faith.

Relevance and Quality of Contributions

Discussions Should Remain Focused on Capital Markets, Governance, Compliance, Execution, And Regulatory Developments. Members Are Encouraged to Share Practical, Experience-Based Insights Rather Than Speculation or Unverified Claims.

No Solicitation or Promotion

The Community Is Not a Platform for Marketing, Sales Pitches, Lead Generation, or Promotional Activity of Any Kind, Including Direct Or Indirect Commercial Outreach.

Confidentiality And Responsible Sharing

Closed Or Limited Discussions Must Be Treated as Confidential. Members Are Responsible for Ensuring That Confidential, Price-Sensitive, Or Legally Restricted Information Is Not Shared Inappropriately.

Use Of Community Content

Community Content Is Intended Solely for Learning and Discussion. Reproduction Or Commercial Use Without Prior Consent Is Prohibited.

Moderation And Access Rights

Gradivus Reserves the Right to Moderate Content, Remove Contributions, Or Restrict Access to Maintain Community Standards.

Updates And Amendments

These Guidelines May Be Updated Periodically. Continued Participation Constitutes Acceptance of the Latest Version.

Closing Statement

The Objective of the Gradivus Community Is to Foster a Trusted, Professional Environment for Learning, Dialogue, And Responsible Market Engagement.
